COLLEGE OF SOCIAL WORK

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OR FULL PROFESSOR

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, College of Social Work invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track opening at the rank of Associate Professor or Full Professor. The position will be located at the College of Social Work Knoxville Campus. Located at the flagship campus, the Knoxville location lends itself to a variety of interdisciplinary research opportunities across campus as well as research opportunities with a wide network of health, behavioral health, community development, and advocacy organizations.

We seek applicants with a clearly articulated research portfolio and agenda that is congruent with research in one or more of the areas currently conducted by the College of Social Work faculty which include: African American individuals and families; behavioral health (mental health and substance abuse); child welfare; environmental justice; gerontology; homelessness; immigration; individuals with disabilities; integrated health care; methodological issues; neurobiology and social functioning; restorative justice and racial disparities; social welfare policy; use of technology in social work practice; violence prevention; and youth development.

Required Qualifications

- PhD in Social Work or a related field
- Publication record commensurate at the associate or full professor level at a Carnegie research university
- Evidence of successful and continued engagement in externally funded research
- Experience in community engagement and community-based research
- A commitment to diversity and inclusion in research and education
- Demonstrated excellence in teaching
- Commitment to building on the successes of the College, contributing to its social justice mission, and advancing its strong base of improving lives and systems

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience teaching PhD students, advanced statistics, and/or macro-oriented courses
- MSW degree from a CSWE accredited program
- 2 years post-MSW practice experience

The College of Social Work is seeking candidates who have the ability to contribute in meaningful ways to the diversity and intercultural goals of the University. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Interested individuals should provide a cover letter addressing professional experience relevant to each required qualification; curriculum vitae; and names, addresses (postal and email), and phone numbers of three references to:
