

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OR FULL PROFESSOR-Trauma Speciality

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, College of Social Work invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track opening at the rank of Associate Professor or Full Professor. The position will be located at the College of Social Work Knoxville Campus. Located at the flagship campus, the Knoxville location lends itself to a variety of interdisciplinary research opportunities across campus as well as opportunities for community-engaged scholarship with a wide network of health and behavioral health organizations. We seek applicants with a clearly articulated research portfolio and agenda in the area of trauma.

Required Qualifications

- MSW degree from a CSWE accredited program
- PhD in Social Work or a related field
- Ability to teach clinically oriented courses related to trauma recovery
- Demonstrated excellence in teaching
- Publication record commensurate at the associate or full professor level at a Carnegie research university
- Evidence of successful and continued engagement in externally funded research
- Experience in community engagement and community-based research
- Knowledge and awareness of systemic and organizational trauma responsive practice while also incorporating issues related to behavioral health disparities and ethnic diversity.

Preferred Qualifications

- 2 years post MSW practice experience
- Background in neuroscience

The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, is Tennessee's flagship state research institution, a campus of choice for outstanding undergraduates, and a premier graduate institution. Knoxville is the gateway to multiple beautiful and historically significant National Park Service destinations, including the Great Smoky Mountains NP and the Big South Fork NRR. East Tennessee offers a blend of convenient urban and rural living settings with easy access to miles of inland waterways, ~1000 acres of trails in Knoxville's Urban Wilderness, and diverse cultural opportunities. Downtown Knoxville is a thriving neighborhood adjacent to campus, filled with restaurants, shops, indoor and outdoor entertainment venues, and is a musical mecca with Tennessee Shines, the Big Ears Music Festival, Knoxville Symphony & Opera, Jazz on the Square, Alive at Five, and other events.

The University of Tennessee College of Social Work is seeking candidates who have the ability to contribute in meaningful ways to the diversity and intercultural goals of the University. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Interested individuals should provide a cover letter addressing professional experience relevant to each required qualification, curriculum vitae, and names, addresses (postal and email), and phone numbers of five references to:
