Welcome

to the 2021 Annual Program Meeting!

Hello, and welcome to CSWE's 67th Annual Program Meeting (APM)!

It is incredible to think that it has been 2 years since we last gathered in person at the 65th APM in Denver, CO. How different our programs, our lives, and our world have become in such a short amount of time.

We are grateful for your support and glad that you can join us for this year's meeting, as Leading Critical Conversations on Racial, Economic, and Environmental Justice has never been more important. We are excited that more than 630 presentations on these topics will be shared during this APM and that our colleagues who are not able to join in person will have access to dozens through a virtual component.

Of course, many of these presentations will link to the impact of COVID-19 on racial, economic, and environmental justice. COVID-19 has claimed more than 700,000 American lives and exacerbated glaring injustices in our society. We know that the impact of structural racism contributed to the disproportionate impact of COVID-19 among traditionally underserved Black and Brown populations. We have also seen how disinformation has been wielded and weaponized throughout this pandemic. Attacks have been launched on critical race theory, free speech in college classrooms, LGBTQ+ rights, and science itself in the name of elevating political careers at the expense of American lives.

That is why it is so important to come together as a community of educators—to be in the presence of co-conspirators, to share ideas, to support and learn from each other. Research and teaching/learning approaches presented at this year's APM can show us how to combat the ailments afflicting our society. Guest speakers will present ideas that can help us rethink our approaches to all-too-familiar issues. Conversations with our colleagues can inspire us to pursue new ways to promote racial, economic, and environmental justice. There is a lot that can happen at APM, and we again thank you for being part of this year's event.

Sincerely,

Darla Spence Coffey, PhD, MSW

Racial, Economic and Environmental Justice

We're Up for the Challenge.

Visit our booth to learn about what we're doing in these areas—and others—and how you can be involved in this critical work! We also have resources you can use in the classroom, field practice and more!

This new edition includes updated descriptions of and future directions for each Grand Challenge, all-new content around the Grand Challenge to Eliminate Racism, and an exploration of the intersections between each of the Grand Challenges and race and gender equity.

At the mid-way mark in the 10-year initiative, this impact report highlights the tremendous progress to-date and ambitious goals for the next five years.

Track Chairs and Co-Chairs

CSWE appreciates the contributions of the 2021 Annual Program Meeting Track chairs and co-chairs. These volunteers play a crucial role in the successful execution of our conference by soliciting, reviewing, and organizing proposals. They also provide leadership in promoting scholarship and networking among CSWE members in their areas of expertise.

Plenary Speakers

Opening Plenary Session

Loretta Ross

Smith College

What if We Called People In, Rather Than Called Them Out?

Loretta Ross

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4
6:30 PM–7:30 PM

*Dolphin, Walt Disney World Resort,
Pacific Hall B/First Level*

Loretta Ross is an award-winning nationally recognized expert on racism and racial justice, women's rights, and human rights. Her work emphasizes the intersectionality of social justice issues and how intersectionality can fuel transformation.

Her presentation at APM will focus on “calling in” people instead of calling them out. Publicly shaming individuals with whom we disagree has become so easy, especially with the use of social media, which allows outrage to build incredibly quickly. Yet this practice does little to solve issues, educate people, and allow our society to progress.

Ross is a visiting associate professor at Smith College in Northampton, MA, in the Program for the Study of Women and Gender, teaching courses on White supremacy, race, and culture in America; human rights; and calling in the calling out culture.

Carl A. Scott Memorial Lecture

Darlyne Bailey, PhD

Bryn Mawr College

What if? The Transformative Powers of Hope and Possibility

Darlyne Bailey

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5
9:00 AM–10:30 AM

*Dolphin, Walt Disney World Resort,
Pacific Hall B/First Level*

The multidimensional COVID-19 statistics remain staggering and unforgettable. Relatedly, 2020 is memorialized for bringing into indisputable awareness the historic “macro viruses” of our country’s numerous manifestations of inequalities and disparities, with racial inequities at the center of them all. From the outset, these traumas were exacerbated by unrelenting vitriolic messages, further igniting feelings and behaviors of anger, confusion, and, most notably, fear. This Carl A. Scott Memorial Lecture will acknowledge these realities and the multigenerational longevity of their impacts. Dr. Bailey will suggest that the movement from identifying as victims to identifying as survivors can be aided by remembering those who broke through the immobilizing chains of fear and going forward, wiser, gained strength in solidarity. Further facilitating the journey, this lecture will present four pathways connected by the art and science of hope and possibility. Dr. Bailey will bring attendees together to discover ways to bring their desired futures closer to reality and will challenge them to ask, “What if?”

Dr. Bailey is professor and dean emeritus, Bryn Mawr College, Graduate School of Social Work and Social Research.

The Carl A. Scott Memorial Lecture Series recognizes Carl Anderson Scott’s groundbreaking contributions to CSWE and the profession of social work. This

Hokenstad International Lecture

Abye Tasse, PhD

TELEMA Project

From Principle to Action: Promoting Equality in Drastically Unequal Societies

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6
9:00 AM-10:30 AM

*Dolphin, Walt Disney World Resort,
Pacific Hall B/First Level*

Dr. Abye Tasse serves as chief of mission of expertise France for the TELEMA Project in the Republic of Congo. He has more than 30 years of experience in social work education and practice, primarily in Europe and Africa. He is the first person of non-Western origin to hold the position of president of the International Association of Schools of Social Work (2004–2008). He presently serves as coordinator of the development of the Global Agenda 2020–2030 for social work and social development.

Dr. Tasse's lecture will present a novel approach that seeks to overcome these challenges through sustained action at multiple levels within a society, including public and private sectors, community leaders, as well as key actors in the national and international arenas. The presentation will include transformative experiences currently underway to empower individuals and communities and build capacity on a large scale in the Republic of Congo.

The Hokenstad Lecture Series was launched in 2007 through an endowment from M. C. "Terry" Hokenstad, a former president and long-time member of CSWE. The lecture is always given during the CSWE Annual Program Meeting (APM). The program serves to enhance and complement the work of the Katherine A. Kendall Institute for International Social Work Education as well as CSWE's Commission on Global Social Work Education.

Abye Tasse

The Partners in International Education Awards will be presented immediately preceding the lecture.

Environmental Justice Plenary Lecture

Debra Furr-Holden, PhD

Michigan State University

Environmental Racism

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6
4:15 PM-5:15 PM

*Dolphin, Walt Disney World Resort,
Pacific Hall B/First Level*

This plenary session will focus on environmental racism and how systemic racism creates and amplifies crises like the COVID-19 pandemic and the Flint, MI, water crisis.

Dr. Debra Furr-Holden is the associate dean for Public Health Integration, C. S. Mott Endowed Professor of Public Health, and director of the Division of Public Health at Michigan State University. She is also the director of the Flint Center for Health Equity Solutions, funded by the National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities. Dr. Furr-Holden is a classically trained epidemiologist who addresses the nation's greatest public health challenges, especially among minorities in racially and economically segregated communities. Among her many awards, Dr. Furr-Holden is the recipient of the 2006 Presidential Early Career Award for Scientists and Engineers (Office of the White House).

APM Session Overview

Competitive Peer-Reviewed Formats and Tracks

Most of the conference program consists of competitively selected presentations in a variety of educational formats. These presentations were selected through a concealed peer-review process from proposals submitted in response to the 2021 APM Call for Proposals. They were chosen based on their timeliness, relevance to social work education, contribution to new knowledge, and relevance to the 2021 APM theme, “Leading Critical Conversations: Racial, Economic, and Environmental Justice.”

Competitive presentations are presented in one of four educational formats:

1. Electronic Poster (up to 60 minutes)
2. Interactive Workshop (60 minutes)
3. Paper Presentation (30 minutes)
4. Panel (60 minutes)

TRACK STRUCTURE

All presentations are scheduled into Tracks so meeting participants can quickly locate and gauge their interest in a session. Track chairs and co-chairs review scores and comments submitted by proposal reviewers and provide recommendations for the selection of presentations to CSWE, which makes the final acceptance decisions.

For the 2021 APM the following 40 Tracks are used.

1. Addictions
2. African Americans and the African Diaspora
3. Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders
4. Baccalaureate Programs
5. Child Welfare
6. Clinical Practice
7. Community Organization and Social Administration
8. Criminal and Juvenile Justice

Continuing Education

CSWE will offer continuing education credits (CEs) for selected preconference events and for panels, workshops, and oral presentations during the 2021 Annual Program Meeting (APM). The sessions are appropriate for generalist or clinical social work practice, and the degree of difficulty is intermediate. The target audience is social work educators, field directors, and field instructors.

CEs are not included in the basic APM registration package, but you can add CEs to a new or existing APM registration for an additional $65 fee.

There are 83 CE-eligible sessions. Information on the maximum number of CEs an individual can receive from the conference is forthcoming as sessions are scheduled.

The Council on Social Work Education (CSWE; ACE Approval #1163) is approved to offer social work continuing education by the Association of Social Work Boards Approved Continuing Education (ACE) program. Organizations, not individual courses, are approved as ACE providers. State and provincial regulatory boards have the final authority to determine whether an individual course may be accepted for continuing education credit. CSWE maintains responsibility for the program. ACE provider approval period: 1/23/2021-1/23/2024.

Awards Luncheon: Honoring Our Own

CSWE and APM attendees will honor recipients of the CSWE Professional Recognition Awards at this year's Awards Luncheon. Enola Proctor, Suk-hee Kim, Jenny Jones, and Yarneccia Dyson will be recognized by their colleagues for outstanding service to social work education. The luncheon will take place on Sunday, November 7, at 11:30 AM in Dolphin, Walt Disney World Resort, Pacific Hall. The Awards Luncheon is sponsored by Columbia School of Social Work.

SIGNIFICANT LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT IN SOCIAL WORK EDUCATION AWARD

The Significant Lifetime Achievement in Social Work Education Award is presented to Enola Proctor, PhD. Dr. Proctor is the Shanti K. Khinduka Distinguished Professor Emeritus at Washington

Enola Proctor

University in St. Louis. Her research is motivated by the question, "How do we ensure that people receive the very best possible care?" She has studied this question in a variety of social work, public health, and health care settings, ranging from hospitals to community agencies. Her research and teaching have advanced the field of mental health services research, particularly from a social work perspective. The National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) has supported her research and training grants for 28 consecutive years. Her team was awarded the first NIMH-funded Social Work Research Development Center, and she was founding director of the longest-running mental health services research doctoral and postdoctoral training program in social work.

Dr. Proctor has contributed to the intellectual capital for the rapidly growing field of dissemination and implementation science, leading teams to distinguish, clearly define, develop taxonomies, and stimulate more systematic work to advance the conceptual, linguistic, and methodological clarity in the field. Dr. Proctor has advised the National Institutes of Health and the World Health Organization on several implementation science projects in low- and middle-income countries, including current work on COVID vaccine implementation. She directs the Implementation Research Institute, a training program in implementation science funded by NIMH. Her former students and mentees now lead countless research projects, training programs, and center grants in mental health services. She was the first social worker appointed to serve on the NIMH National Advisory Council.

Proctor is a fellow of the Society for Social Work and Research and was a member of the inaugural class of fellows in the American Academy of Social Work and Social Welfare. Her awards include Washington University's Arthur Compton Holly Distinguished Faculty Award, the Society for Social Work and Research's Distinguished Research Award, the National Association of Social Workers' President's Award for Excellence in Social Work Research, and the American Public Health Association Stephen M. Banks Award for Outstanding Mentoring in Mental Health Services.

DISTINGUISHED RECENT CONTRIBUTIONS TO SOCIAL WORK EDUCATION AWARD

CSWE will give the 2021 Distinguished Recent Contributions to Social Work Education Award to Suk-hee Kim, PhD, COI, MSW, associate professor and site coordinator of the Public

Suk-hee Kim

Child Welfare Certificate State Program in the School of Social Work at Northern Kentucky University (NKU). Dr. Kim is also an active faculty fellow for the Institute for Health Innovation at NKU.

Dr. Kim is a proactive scholar, researcher, and educator in gerontological research and opioid addiction studies. She developed NKU's transdisciplinary approach to an aging-specific curriculum and, with her colleagues, guided the creation of NKU's gerontology microcredentials and social entrepreneurship microcredential. She received an award for her Rising Hope for Aging Project, a community-based learning initiative that connects NKU students with residents at a low-income housing unit for senior citizens. With support and collaboration across the campus community, Dr. Kim played a significant role in helping NKU earn the Age-Friendly University designation in 2020, making NKU the first institution in the region to join the international effort to increase accessibility and support services for students of all ages.

Dr. Kim has served on diversity focused councils, advisory boards, and committees at the university, regional, and national levels. She received the CSWE Council on the Role and Status of Women in Social Work Education Community Impact Award in 2020; the CSWE Community Partnership Action Inaugural Award in 2019, focused on opioid addiction; and the Korean American Social Work Educators Association Middle Career Achievement Award in 2020. She has served on the CSWE Council on Racial, Ethnic, and Cultural Diversity; is a certified CSWE accreditation site visitor; and is a reviewer for the Journal of Social Work Education.

Dr. Kim has been awarded grants by the U.S. Department of Justice (Comprehensive Site-Based Opioid Research) and the Health Resources and Services Administration (Rural Community Collaborative Addiction Treatment Initiative), among others. She is very actively involved with high school students through the IHI Teen Health Science Cafés.

Dr. Kim received her joint PhD in social work from the University of Kentucky and University of Louisville and her MSW in social work from Boston University. She joined the NKU faculty in 2014.

ESTABLISHED FACULTY SERVICE AND LEADERSHIP IN SOCIAL WORK EDUCATION AWARD

The Established Faculty Service and Leadership in Social Work Education Award is presented to Jenny L. Jones, PhD, MSW, ACSW. Dr. Jenny Jones is dean and professor of the Whitney M. Young, Jr., School of Social Work at Clark Atlanta University and graduate faculty affiliate at Florida State University. Dr. Jones has more than 23 years of professional social work experience in higher education, public child welfare service systems, HIV/AIDS community-based multiservice organizations, and applied research. Her primary research examines administrative practice (including supervision and organizational culture) and its impact on service delivery and child well-being. In addition, her interests include financial capability and asset building, which considers the integration of financial and economic principles and interventions in direct practice with low-income families. Dr. Jones' research productivity includes extensive involvement as principal investigator or co-investigator on nine externally funded projects totaling $10.5 million in grants and contracts over the past 23 years.

Dr. Jones has sustained a well-respected research and community service career grounded in culturally responsive practices. She has authored or edited more than 47 scholarly publications, reports, and monographs. Dr. Jones is nationally and internationally known for her work in child welfare and HIV/AIDS. She serves on the CSWE Board of Directors, is a former member of the CSWE Diversity Commission and the CSWE Diversity Center Advisory Board and is former director of the CSWE Minority Fellowship Program.

EARLY CAREER FACULTY SERVICE AND LEADERSHIP IN SOCIAL WORK EDUCATION AWARD

CSWE will present the 2021 Early Career Faculty Service and Leadership in Social Work Education Award to Dr. Yarneccia Dyson, assistant professor of social work at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

reducing and alleviating negative health outcomes by empowering marginalized communities through implementation science.

While teaching across BSW, MSW, and PhD programs, Dr. Dyson also contributes leadership and service. She served on the Development Committee for the PhD in social work as part of the Joint Programs in Social Work of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and North Carolina A&T State University and chairs the Department of Social Work Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Committee. On the national level, Dr. Dyson served as track chair for the CSWE African Americans and the African Diaspora track; as co-chair of the CSWE Council on Racial, Ethnic, and Cultural Diversity; and as a member of the CSWE Commission for Diversity, Social, and Economic Justice. She is a CSWE accreditation site visitor and was appointed to the CSWE Task Force to Advance Anti-Racism in Social Work Education as co-chair for the Curriculum Development Work Group.

In 2020 Dr. Dyson received the CSWE Feminist Manuscript Award for her paper, “The Use of Black Feminist Theory as a Lens to Explore the Sexual Health Needs of Black College Women: Translating Frameworks to Communities and Social Environments for HIV Prevention.” She participated in the Association for Baccalaureate Social Work Program Directors (BPD) Emerging Leader-Scholar Initiative (2015–2020) and currently is chair of African American Issues for BPD.

Dr. Dyson has more than 15 years of social work practice experience in various roles, including social services administrator, research analyst, and public health analyst. She is currently a co-principal investigator on two Health Resources and Services Administration awards totaling $3 million. As a true believer in ubuntu and the importance of “lift as you climb,” Dr. Dyson mentors many students and has served on dissertation committees across the southeastern United States. She serves on various editorial boards and is the lead editor for Black Men’s Health and Helping Professions (forthcoming, spring 2022, Springer). She is committed to faculty development with a focus on peer mentoring and supporting the success of Black women and women of color scholars in the academy.

Dr. Dyson is a graduate of the Whitney M. Young, Jr., School of Social Work at Clark Atlanta University, where she earned a PhD in social work policy, planning, and administration & social science (cognate: public health). She earned her BSW from Florida Agricultural & Mechanical University and a master’s degree in clinical social work from the Florida State University.

COMMUNITY IMPACT AWARD

The Community Impact Award recognizes community praxis that is shaped through the process of social work education and exemplifies the values of feminist leadership models in social work education. Jessica

L. Yang, PhD, an assistant professor in the Social Work Department at Winthrop University, will receive this year’s award. Her—It Takes a Village: Engaging Community Partners to Build Stronger Schools—seeks to understand disproportionate discipline practices affecting students of color and other marginalized student groups in local schools. Dr. Yang is also working to implement restorative practices by providing ongoing professional development to educators, district employees, and parents in the areas of school discipline, child behavior, mental health and illness, and parenting strategies. She is part of a team that includes all school districts in the county and the local substance use provider and is working to design, deliver, and evaluate a substance use prevention program and treatment options for youths with substance use disorders. Through this project Dr. Yang hopes to understand the pedagogy of teaching about diversity, equity, and inclusion through the piloting of a novel teaching intervention.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP AWARD

The Community Partnership Action Award honors the contributions of schools and departments of social work and social work students (BSW, MSW, PhD) in advancing community partnership action.

Community is broadly defined as a self-organized network of people with a common agenda, cause, or interest and is not limited by physical locality. The Student Project Award winner for 2021 is Tanzilya Oren, a PhD candidate in social work at the Graduate School of Social Service at Fordham University. The Program Awardee is the University of Missouri School of Social Work Integrative Behavioral Health Clinic, which was established in 2014 to address disparities in the availability of comprehensive and integrated mental health care for people who are uninsured or unable to afford health care and to provide an intensive experiential learning opportunity to students.

Accreditation Services

CSWE Program Member representatives are encouraged to participate in sessions offered by CSWE's Department of Social Work Accreditation (DOSWA) staff. No preregistration is required. Four on-site sessions will be provided at the Annual Program Meeting:

- Demystifying the Accreditation Process
- Frequently Cited Standards: 2015 EPAS
- Accreditation Candidacy Overview: Baccalaureate and Master's Programs
- 2015 EPAS Assessment

A flyer will be available at the registration desk with dates, times, and locations of these special interest sessions. DOSWA staff members will also offer virtual group consultation sessions. Group consultations will require registration with accreditation specialists. Unable to attend on-site accreditation sessions or virtual consultations? Contact your program's designated accreditation specialist to arrange a consultation via e-mail, phone, or video conference to address your questions after the Annual Program Meeting.

Business Center

The 11th Hour Business Centers can handle all your print material before and throughout the conference. You will save time and expensive shipping costs by sending your convention material beforehand. The business center can accept hardcopy or digital formats and has full binding capabilities. Copiers, fax machines, personal computers, laptop computers, and laser jet printers are available through the business center. Hours of operation are 7:00 AM–7:00 PM daily.

Child Care

Child care services are available through the hotel. Contact the hotel concierge to arrange for this service.

CSWE Annual Membership Meeting

The CSWE Membership Meeting will be held on Friday, November 5, 5:30 PM–6:30 PM in the Dolphin, Walt Disney World Resort, Pacific Hall B/ First Level. Leadership representatives will give an update on CSWE activities, and the meeting will provide an opportunity to answer questions related to CSWE membership.

Use the CLEAR App to Show Vaccine and Health Status

CLEAR and CSWE are working together to provide a safer experience for you at the CSWE 67th Annual Program Meeting. With CLEAR's Health Pass feature, your COVID-19 health screening is quick, easy, and secure. Ready to get started?

For attendees who are fully vaccinated:

1. Use this link to download the free CLEAR app and enter CSWE2021
2. Create an account by uploading a photo of a government-issued ID (such as a driver's license or passport) and snap a quick selfie to confirm you are you. Note: If you are already a CLEAR member, you can log in and verify with a selfie.
3. To add your proof of vaccination, you can securely link to your vaccine provider, scan a SMART QR code, or upload your CDC card. Check out this tutorial if you need help.
4. On the day of your arrival at the event, take a quick health survey to complete your Health Pass. Green means you're good to go! Show your Health Pass when you arrive at registration to pick up your credentials.

For attendees who are not vaccinated or prefer not to disclose:

1. Use this link to download the free CLEAR app and enter CSWE2021
2. Create an account by uploading a photo of a government-issued ID (such as a driver's license or passport) and snap a quick selfie to confirm you are you. Note: If you are already a CLEAR member, you can log in and verify with a selfie.
3. Get tested 72 hours prior to your arrival at the CSWE 67th Annual Program Meeting. COVID-19 test providers that integrate directly with the CLEAR app include Quest, Labcorp, BioReference, CVS, or Vault Health. Check out the CLEAR app to see the full list of testing providers.
4. Follow instructions to securely link your testing provider with CLEAR to upload your COVID-19 test results.
5. On the day of your arrival at the event, take a quick health survey to complete your Health Pass. Amber means you're good to go! Show your Health Pass when you arrive at registration to pick up your credentials.

Before leaving your hotel room each morning during the CSWE 67th Annual Program Meeting, you will need to make a new Health Pass by completing the health survey. Show your Health Pass at the meeting checkpoint to access the event.

Having trouble with Health Pass? Reach out to the CLEAR team by tapping "get in touch" on the mobile app or calling 1-855-CLEARME (253-2763).

With CLEAR, you are always in control of your information. CSWE only receives confirmation that a guest satisfied the requirements for access with the equivalent of a red, amber, or green result—and never has access to an individual's private health data through CLEAR. For further information on how CLEAR protects user data see the member terms here.

CSWE Press Bookstore and Information Booth

The CSWE Press Bookstore and Information Booth, located at the front of the exhibit hall, offers the latest CSWE Press books and DVDs and written information about CSWE programs and initiatives. The booth will be open during the following hours:

CSWE PRESS BOOKSTORE AND INFORMATION BOOTH

November 4	7:30 PM–9:00 PM
November 5 & November 6	9:00 AM–5:00 PM
November 7	8:00 AM–12:00 PM

Emergency and Medical Assistance

If an evacuation becomes necessary, alarms will sound, followed by a recording stating “May I have your attention please? There has been an emergency reported in the building. Please evacuate the building by the nearest exit. Do not use elevators.”

This verbiage and tones will repeat until the “all clear” is given. The announcement that it is safe to return will be communicated via radio to our Emergency Response Team and relayed to the guests by hotel staff members. The local fire department will respond to any fire or medical emergency.

If you see an emergency situation while on the property, dial “22” from any house phone located throughout our public spaces to get connected to our 24/7 emergency line. If medical assistance is needed, a CPR/AED/first-aid trained member of the hotel security services team will be alerted and respond with medical bag to assist.

Housing Assistance

The Housing desk is in the Dolphin Wing, convention foyer, lobby/third level.

Internet/Wi-Fi

APM participants will have access to complimentary WiFi throughout the conference facility, including meeting rooms and the exhibit hall.

Lost and Found/Security

The Swan and Dolphin Resort does not provide security in the function spaces. Attendees are responsible for the safekeeping of their personal property. Items left in the Swan and Dolphin Resort must be reported to the lost and found coordinator in the security department by dialing 407-934-4220 (Dolphin) or 407-934-1730 (Swan). Neither CSWE nor the Swan and Dolphin Resort can be responsible for items left in session rooms. Attendees are reminded to take all personal items and belongings with them when leaving sessions. Please use your in-room safe for valuables.

The transformative power of STUDENT SUPPORT

At the UW School of Social Work, we believe that innovations in student support can be a powerful force for systems change. Our behavioral health workforce initiative, funded in part by private gifts that include $24.8 million from the Ballmer Group, puts social justice at the center. Graduate students in social work and counseling programs across Washington state are eligible for generous two-year grants in exchange for three years of service in community-based behavioral health agencies. This is just one of the ways we are creating debt-free pathways for students while building a strong and sustainable safety net for the most vulnerable among us.

Parking

Self- and valet parking are available on a first-come, first-serve basis, 24-hours a day. The current rate for self-parking is $29.00 per day plus tax, and valet is available at $39.00 per day plus tax. Please text your name and ticket number to 407-934-1779 (Swan) or 407-512-0055 (Dolphin) 20 minutes before you want your vehicle brought to the entrance. Please note that any vehicles left on the drive for more than 10 minutes will be placed back in valet parking.

Poster Sessions–Interactive

The ePoster sessions are located in Atlantic Hall, 5th level, in the exhibit hall.

Registration

The Registration Desk for the 2021 APM is in the Dolphin Convention Foyer, lobby/third level, and opens November 4 at 7:30 AM. An official registration name badge must be displayed for admission to any APM session or the exhibit hall. APM attendees' spouses, partners, and children who are not social work educators, students, or practitioners may purchase a special badge onsite that will allow them admission to the Opening Plenary Session, Opening Reception, and the exhibit hall.

REGISTRATION HOURS

November 4	7:00 AM–9:00 PM
November 5 & November 6	7:00 AM–5:00 PM
November 7	7:00 AM–12:00 PM

Shuttle Service

CSWE will provide a complimentary shuttle service from the Hilton Orlando Bonnet Creek to the Walt Disney World Swan and Dolphin Resort. Shuttle schedules will be posted at the hotel departure/arrival points.

Special Needs

If you have a disability and require assistance, please mention this to the hotel front desk attendant when you check in. Each hotel maintains a list of people with special needs in case of emergency.

Student Volunteers

Approximately 80 student volunteers support APM operations. Volunteers who will be available to answer questions about ePoster sessions, CE scanning for panel and interactive workshops, and other information during the APM can be seen wearing designated t-shirts (provided by The University of Memphis). The student volunteer program is an excellent resource for attendees and is a great way for student to further their connections in the social work community.

VCU

School of Social Work

Our faculty are Making the GADE!

The Virginia Commonwealth University School of Social Work is proud to recognize two of our faculty for their achievements with the Group for the Advancement of Doctoral Education in Social Work.

GADE has selected Professor Kia J. Bentley, Ph.D., LCSW, as the recipient of the 2021 GADE Award for Educational Leadership in Doctoral Education. Dr. Bentley will offer remarks and receive a certificate and a monetary award at the Doctoral Student Award Breakfast on Friday, Nov. 5, 2021, at the CSWE APM Conference.

The selection committee was "very impressed by (Dr. Bentley's) strong commitment to advancing doctoral education at multiple levels." Bentley was the school's Ph.D. Program director for 13 years and also served as President of GADE from 2012-13. She commissioned the 2013 update of GADE Guidelines for Quality in Ph.D. Programs in Social Work and has presented extensively on academic mentorship and scholarly networking.

Professor and Ph.D. Program Director Denise Burnette, Ph.D., LMSW, was recently elected president-elect of GADE. She will serve as the president-elect for one year, followed by two years as the GADE President. In addition to serving as director of social work Ph.D. programs for more than a decade, she has chaired and served on multiple national and international committees on doctoral education. At VCU, she holds the Samuel S. Wurtzel Endowed Faculty Chair in Social Work.

HUMAN RIGHTS ARE GLOBAL RIGHTS

CSWE 68th Annual Program Meeting / November 10-13 / Anaheim, CA

Human rights extend past the borders of nations. Social workers and educators have understood this principle, but the COVID-19 pandemic made it clear to everyone that the need for supporting and honoring basic rights exists everywhere.

Next year, join the critical conversations on human rights as global rights during CSWE's 68th Annual Program Meeting in Anaheim, California.

SOCIAL WORK PRACTICE FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

*From Cultural Competence to Anti-Oppression, A Guide for Students,
2nd edition*

By Betty Garcia and Dorothy Van Soest

An invitation and challenge to students and practitioners to tackle the personal and institutional obstacles preventing the social work profession from realizing its mandate to promote social justice. Systemic racism is centered as the foundation oppression of our country to provide the gateway for understanding and dismantling all other systems of oppression. In this new edition Garcia and Van Soest probe essential questions about how social justice theories, institutional practices, and deep-seated personal and societal belief systems function to rationalize and support oppression, and they provide numerous exercises as a guide to increased awareness, understanding, and anti-oppression action.

Dorothy Van Soest is professor emerita and former dean of the School of Social Work at the University of Washington, with a BA in English literature and a master's and PhD in social work. Betty Garcia is professor emerita in the Department of Social Work Education at California State University, Fresno, and obtained an MSW at San Diego State University and a PhD in social psychology at Boston University.

APM On-Demand

December 6–10, 2021 | cswe.org/APM

Introducing . . . APM On-Demand!

From December 6–10 CSWE will offer APM On-Demand: a new way for educators to Lead Critical Conversations if they cannot attend the in-person Annual Program Meeting (APM)—for $175, a fraction of the in-person registration cost.

This new program will feature prerecorded content from the in-person APM, November 4–7, in Orlando, as well as new live networking events just for On-Demand users. Most of the prerecorded content will be available to On-Demand users for 12 months following the event.

APM On-Demand will offer four live networking events; video recordings of 40 highlighted education sessions, one for each APM Track; and video recordings of all five plenary sessions. Up to 16 continuing education credits (CEs) will be available (separate fee for CEs is required).

Register now for APM On-Demand!
